GYMNASTICS AUSTRALIA ENDORSEMENT:

This insurance policy is conditional upon Gymnastics Australia's endorsement. Please complete Section A of this form to apply for GA endorsement. For details please contact Gymnastics Australia.

DUTY OF DISCLOSURE:

The Insurance Contracts Act 1984 sets out certain duties you must understand before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer. You have a duty to inform the insurer about every matter that you know (or could reasonably be expected to know) is relevant to the insurer's decision to accept the risk and, if so, on what terms. You have the same duty each time you renew, extend, reinstate or vary the policy and throughout the policy period.

Your disclosure requirement under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 is especially important in matters relating to physical risk (including alteration of risk), past claims, cancellation of insurance covers, imposition of increased premiums, insolvency or criminal convictions. Please make sure you disclose any of these things.

Your disclosure requirement is not limited to specific questions in the insurance application or matters applying to you in the policy. It also includes other matters like past businesses or private insurances.

If you breach your duty, even innocently, the insurer may be able to reduce its liability if you make a claim or may even be able to cancel the contract. If the non-disclosure is fraudulent the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the policy from its inception.

If you are in any doubt as the extent of the duty of disclosure or whether a piece of information ought to be disclosed, please contact JLT Sport directly.

REMUNERATION:

JLT Sport is remunerated by a combination of commission and our broker fee. The commission is paid by the Insurer and is calculated as a percentage of the premium.

Gymnastics Australia receives financial benefit when a Travel Insurance Policy is arranged by JLT Sport. This enables Gymnastics Australia to continue to provide a range of services and benefits to their affiliated clubs.
